

1993/224. Strengthening international statistical co-operation

At its 30th plenary meeting, on 12 July 1993, the Economic and Social Council, bearing in mind the fact that the Statistical Commission, at its twenty-seventh session, had discussed the question of strengthening international statistical cooperation,¹⁹ decided that:

(a) The Working Group on International Statistical Programmes and Coordination of the Commission should meet in 1994 and 1995 for four days each meeting;

(b) The provisions of the present decision should be implemented within the approved budget limit set by the General Assembly for the biennium 1994-1995.
